Tipp: Friday stroll through Annaberg - all in one round

The artist and extreme carver Ernst Adelsberger carved the life-size crib out of fragrant pine with incredible precision using a chainsaw. A shepherd with his sheep is already making his way to the Holy Family on the square next to the Annaberg parish church.

On the way up from the village to the church you will encounter another wonderful work of art. The internationally renowned artist Gottfried Kumpf, who died only recently, bequeathed an owl sculpture to his birthplace, which adorns the fountain in front of the new secondary school building and is absolutely worth seeing.

The trophies of ski star Marcel Hirscher can be viewed directly opposite in the Raiffeisenbank Lammertal.

Sport has a long tradition in Annaberg, the headquarters of the international sportswear manufacturer Martini Sportswear can also be found on this tour. Culinary delights and tradition should not be missing on this tour: Every Friday from 3 to 6 p.m., the „Postgarage“ in the village center invites you to browse through regional handicrafts and surprises with some ideal holiday souvenirs.

Regional delicacies can also be found in the butcher's shop and in the warehouse (with a farmer's market every 1st, 3rd and 5th Friday afternoon of the month)
